Sub: Announcement of the South Asian Global Intellectual Property Summit, 2024

We are pleased to announce the South Asian Global Intellectual Property Summit, 2024 – a month-long virtual conference bringing together Intellectual Property (IP) experts, students, researchers and professionals from South Asia and around the world. Organised by the Centre for Development of Intellectual Property and Research (CDIPR) under the Naovina Development of Intellectual Property and Research Foundation, this summit will be held from 25th November to 25th December, 2024. It aims to facilitate interdisciplinary discussions on IP law, technology, cultural heritage and innovation, creating pathways for collaboration and forward-thinking solutions in the region.

Objectives of the Summit

- To increase awareness and understanding of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) in South Asia, emphasising their role in fostering innovation.
- To encourage cross-border collaboration among IP professionals and academics dedicated to advancing IP knowledge and practice.
- To provide practical solutions to contemporary IP challenges via interactive sessions, competitions and expert insights.
- To highlight IP's role in economic development, cultural preservation and technological advancement.
